

Colorado Vincentian Volunteers 2010 Conference

“So during the meal Jesus got up, removed his outer garment, and wrapped a towel around his waist. He put some water into a large bowl. Then he began washing his disciples’ feet and drying them with the towel he was wearing... I have set the example, and you should do for each other exactly what I have done for you.” John: 13

What does Servant Leadership mean in today’s society?

Juana Bordas is the author of Salsa, Soul, and Spirit, which looks at a multicultural approach to leadership in hopes of strengthening today’s diverse workforce. She is the founder of Mi Casa Women’s Center and was named the 2009 Unique Woman of Colorado.

Chris Haw, a modern Renaissance Man, is an aspiring potter, carpenter, painter, and theologian. He spent time studying theology and ecology in Belize and currently lives in a multi-house community with his wife, Cassie. He co-authored the book Jesus for President; Politics for Ordinary Radicals with Shane Claiborne and currently works through the challenges of post-industrial ecology, economic redistribution, and the dissolution of community-life in America. He also teaches at Cabrini College.

Then Denver singer/songwriter, Megan Burtt, will grace us with her musical presence. Megan’s sound encompasses several genres, including folk, blues, roots, rock and pop. “Think Americana tinged classic rock in the vein of Bonnie Raitt and Eric Clapton with a touch of Delta blues thrown in.”
